

THINK FAST. BE PREPARED. SAVE A LIFE.

my pet's name is:

my family veterinary clinic:

phone: website:

address:

my emergency clinic:

phone: website:

address:

my pet's medical information is located:

my pet's kennel/leash is located:

emergency checklist:

Call ahead

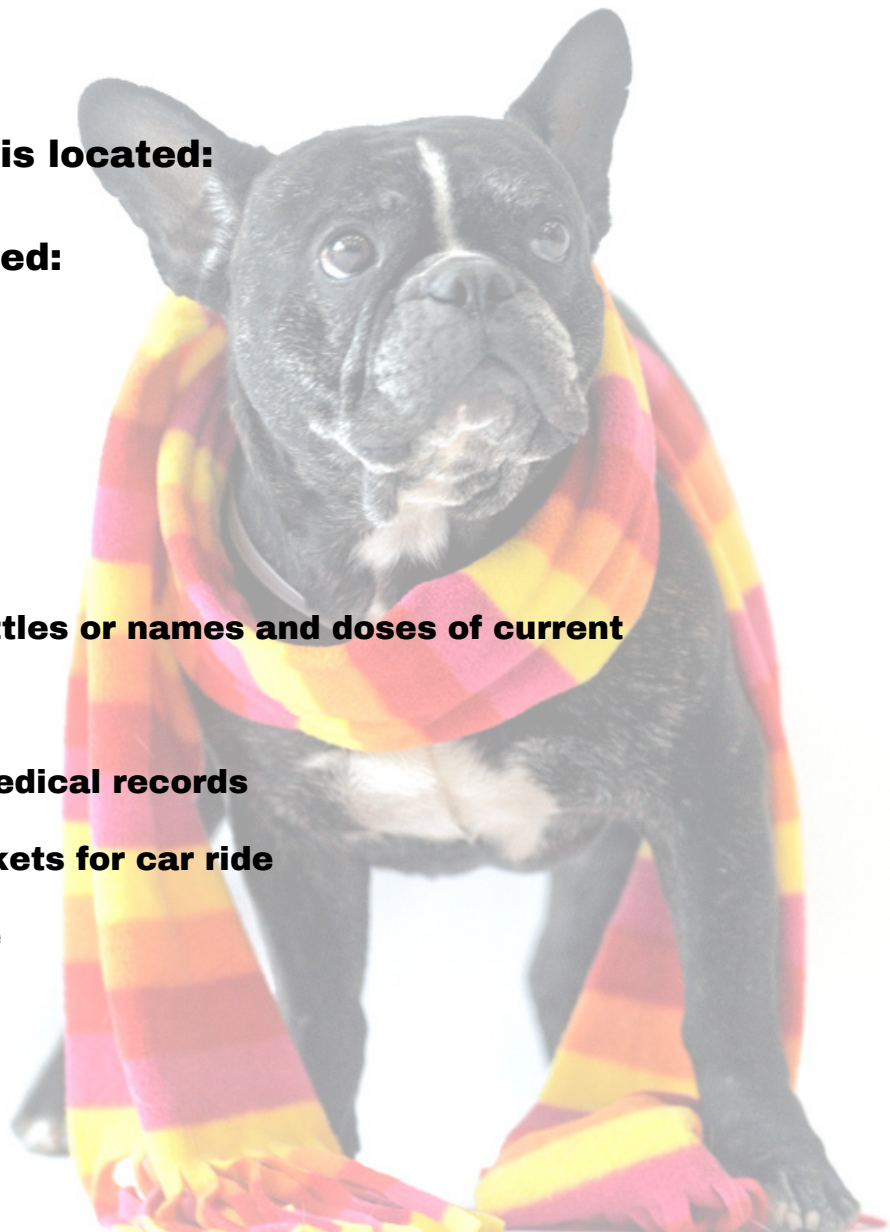

Bring:

- medication bottles or names and doses of current medications
- most recent medical records
- towels or blankets for car ride
- wallet or purse

ANIMAL
EMERGENCY
& REFERRAL
CENTER OF MINNESOTA

aercmn.com

THINK FAST. BE PREPARED. SAVE A LIFE.

what is a pet emergency?

Breathing

TOO FAST OR TOO SLOW

pale gum or tongue color

dehydration

EXCESSIVE VOMITING OR DIARRHEA REFUSES TO EAT OR DRINK NORMALLY

straining to urinate or poop

attempting to vomit but can't bleeding

ANY WOUND
BLOOD IN VOMIT, STOOL OR URINE
BLOOD FROM EYES, MOUTH, OR IN SALIVA

any concern about eyes or vision

non-food objects eaten

exposure to poisonous plant or chemical uncomfortable

WON'T LAY DOWN
WON'T GET UP OR MOVE
ABDOMEN IS BLOATED
OBVIOUSLY PAINFUL

anything that causes you to doubt that your pet is OK!

